Introducing Edgemere - the future of roof tiles...

Postcard Rear

Yes, roof tiles are evolving. And evolving very fast.

With Edgemere, standard interlocking tiles will never be the same again...

Edgemere is a superb new range of interlocking roof tiles in 3 finishes and a range of great colours. They look stunning and deliver outstanding performance.

What's more, they are very attractively priced – and are 40% thinner than most tiles – making them a very serious alternative to natural slate.

And that's not all. Just look at the many additional benefits of the Edgemere range:

- ) A much-reduced leading edge
- ) Excellent covering capacity
- ) A reduced laid weight
- ) Can be laid at pitches as low as 17.5 degrees
- ) A+ rating in the BRE Green Guide
- ) BES 6001 standard certification
- ) Delivers extra credits under BREEAM
