A unique target audience - offering advertisers unlimited potential...

Dear Mr Sample

Yes, I know. The word unique is abused and overworked these days.

But, for this message, it is spot on. Because, the target audience we are offering you, IS unique. What's more, it is very high profile and cash rich...

London City Airport is the UK's leading business airport, offering a business class environment for individuals with high expectations.

These people love the fine things in life. Let's look at them a bit more closely:

- ) Senior decision makers
- ) 87% AB profile
- ) Average salary - £92,000
- ) 81% have a degree

Attractive? You bet. Responsive? Very. Potential? Unlimited.

And the good news is, we have over 300,000 of these individuals on our database, who have signed up to receive our regular email newsletter. The audience is growing by over 4,000 every month.

By taking a spot on our newsletter, you are guaranteed to have the right eyes looking at your sales message. These people know what they want and they are interested.

Opening rates to our newsletters are 2.5 times the national average - and 'click throughs' are impressive, too.

So, there has never been a better time to advertise with us. We can offer you the quality audience profile you want - and at rates that will pleasantly surprise you.
